~ A Message from the Diocesan Spiritual Advisor ~

There's an odd word in the Hobbit dialect - mathom. Do you know it?

The great English writer J. R. R. Tolkien the author of the fantasy novels, "The Hobbit" and "The Lord of the Rings" tweaked an Old English word máðm meaning a treasure, a valuable or precious thing so that in "Hobbit Land" (The Shire) it was the generic term for all those special things Hobbits had no immediate use for but were unwilling to throw away.

What saved their dwellings from being overcrowded with mathoms was their practice of passing them on from hand to hand - re-gifting them at birthdays or when friends came visiting.

It was not unusual for precious things to pass through many hands and end up being received again with delight by the original giver.

Re-gifting (especially re-gifting of our precious treasure) is a great concept.

It's what Christmas is all about.

Before you rise up in your seats in outrage, let me assure you that I'm not talking about scarves, or socks or soap.

I'm talking about how each year we're given the most marvelous gift - the story of Mary and Joseph; of angels and shepherds; of magi and a star; of God choosing to be among us, inviting us into the ongoing creation of a world aflame with God's glory and love and shalom for all.

Each year we come to celebrate the story - maybe in awe and wonder, maybe from family habit, maybe to please another – and possibly, because once again this year all the normal certainties have been stood on their heads as Covid has thrown us another curve ball, just as we thought we were on the way to freedom.

There's a hard knot of uncertainty and fear around what the future holds in store, and it calls me, and possibly you as well, to question my values, my meaning and purpose - the very way I live.

Maybe we come to Christmas hoping, wondering even, if it could indeed be possible that we can trust that God is with us; that God is our salvation. Maybe God's unveiling at the Christmas, God's way of nonviolent love, living in vulnerability with integrity and truth, is the counterpoint we, and our world, needs against the dehumanising rules, regulations and expectations that govern our lives and fill our media.

This year, reach out your hands, receive the gift, don't just put it to one side as a purposeless treasure.

Instead, unwrap it, hold it up to the light, explore its depth, question its meaning, follow your heart to the source of joy - then (and here's the delicious irony) join the great circle of faith re-gifters.

I wish you God's blessing as you spread the love as you pass on the greatest story ever told to those around you. As St Francis is reputed to have said – If necessary, you can even use words.

De Colores,

Valerie

2021 A YEAR of ACHIEVEMENT

"And the Lord added to their number, daily, those who were being saved." Acts 2:47

The future for the Cursillo Movement in our diocese is looking good. Men's and Women's 80 concluded in early November with 20 new Cursillistas joining our ranks in the movement. It was a privilege to listen to the many who gave their testimonials on how they found the Weekend. Our new Cursillistas were truly inspirational.

Group Reunions

Part of the Fourth Day, Group Reunions are an integral part of the glue that keeps your Weekend memories alive. It was heartening to hear so many "Groupings" being held on a weekly, fortnightly, and monthly basis. Some have been happening for over 20 years. If you are not in a Group at the moment, please consider starting or joining one. We have so many opportunities now if we can't meet face to face, we can do so using Skype, Facebook Live, Zoom, Face Time, etc.

Ultreyas

As another Fourth Day tool, we are so pleased with the increase in attendees at Ultreyas. To see friendships made and existing ones developed further at these events, warms everyone's heart. Just a quick shout out to everyone who has had a part in each of the Ultreyas this year, "Thank You".

Candidates for Next Year

M81 & W81 times have been set in place for next year. We have 132 parishes in our diocese. We have set a cost for sending a Candidate to under $300. When $300 is divided by 52 weeks it is less than $5.90 weekly. It would be great if we could strive to send at least one Candidate from each parish every year. This would be 132 Candidates, for the year. Back to 1985 numbers when Cursillo was new to the diocese.

Secretariat (and how to be selected)

Many Cursillistas are unaware of what Secretariat actually is. It is just a fancy name for a voluntary committee. Secretariat meets every 6 weeks to discuss Cursillo, past, present and future. Secretariat is made up of Cursillistas from within our diocese. Selection is based on experience of the Cursillo process. For example: Weekend Team involvement, work skills (such as accountancy for the Treasurer's position), being Parish Contact, or involvement with organising an Ultreya, etc.

If you have skills to offer Cursillo, please make it known to your Parish Contact or any member of Secretariat.

Finally, we have a great program for you in 2022 with Ultreyas, a Pilgrimage and of course M81 & W81 in August-September.

May you have a Happy and Blessed Christmas with your family and friends.

De Colores,

Alan

~ A Message from The Editor ~

Welcome to this edition just in time for Christmas. Joy to the World! Wishing you a Happy Christmas filled with wonder and delight.

Read Archdeacon Valerie's article on page 3 about reaching out and accepting God's love and 'regifting' it with great joy. I found myself reading these beautiful words over and over again. On page 4 Alan is congratulating and asking for people to come forward and acknowledge their God given skills by volunteering. Sharyn (page 6) is encouraging people to consider taking on the role of Parish Contact if your parish does not have one. You can see the happy faces (page 7) of Christian Community in Action when members of Secretariat and Servant Community visited Goondiwindi. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the Goondiwindi community following the recent floods.

Max and Marilyn share their thoughts of M80 and W80 Cursillos (pages 8 & 9) which took place after a couple of false (Covid) starts. Jan and John Corcut were on team at these recent Cursillos and have contributed the article outlining what candidates need to know before coming to a Cursillo Weekend (page 9). Ann Morris gave a fantastic talk at W80 about Grouping and a recap of this talk is here on page 10. Joy, Love, Peace, Hope and Faith from Rev. Marilyn Cullen also on page 10. If you are not able to Group in person, Peter Victor gives information on page 11, about how to do this using video conferencing software. Also on page 11 are some Prayer Points for Cursillo in our Southern Queensland Diocese. Lurline Campbell on page 12 has passed on The Third Solution from her Jordanian missionary friend, Amer Qusus in the article 'In Christian Fellowship'.

Get Ultreya information from Kay in her Post Cursillo Report on pages 13 & 14. Hopefully you have your 2022 diary organised so the dates can go straight in!

Are you up to date with your contribution? You may have already paid at the Diocesan Ultreya! All the detailed information from treasurer, Ann Martin-Victor is included on page 15.

Thank you to the many people who continue to send articles. Please continue to send them in for publication! Original articles, prayers, poems, photos are needed, encouraged and welcomed. Handwritten, email, text messages – send them all!

A MESSAGE FROM THE DATABASE CO-ORDINATOR

Thank you to those of you who have sent your details and changes of details. The data base is an evolving system.

We really need more Parish Contacts so that all the Cursillistas in each parish are recognised. We always need members for Teams, Servant Community and Secretariat and as a Parish Contact, you are in a position to nominate Cursillistas from your parish for these roles.

If you are a Parish Contact, I thank you for the sterling work that you do.

The data base is continually updated and without your assistance this is not possible. If you already are a Parish Contact, please find out who in your parish are Cursillistas and who no longer are in your parish. People move around and you may have new Cursillistas in your area who have come from other parts of Australia.

If your parish does not have a Parish Contact, please consider being one. Please let your parish know that you are the Parish Contact and please also let me know.

I wish you all a blessed Christmas filled with peace, love and joy.

Blessings,
Sharyn

Vale ...

June Fradgley a member of the Robina / Mermaid Beach Parish Reunion Group, died on Friday, 20th August. June did her Cursillo in NSW and was a valuable member of the group which met each month for many years at June's place. Even when she went into an Aged Care Facility, she organised for several of the residents to view the on-line Sunday service of Robina Anglican Church on a Monday in the facility's theatrette. She showed the "Face of Jesus". June's funeral was held on Thursday 26th August at Robina Anglican Church. May she rest in eternal peace.

Ida Robinson of Woombye passed away on 6th September. Ida and her husband Rev. Philip Robinson were at St John's in Nambour for many years. Ida was a candidate on W05 in 1986 and along with Phillip, was an avid supporter of Cursillo. Ida you are sorely missed. Philip and Fiona; we uphold you in prayer.

Daphne Ogden of Wentworth Falls, New South Wales, previously from St Barts at Mt Gravatt passed away on 20th September. Daphne made her Cursillo on W01 in 1985. She was Assistant Proctor on W5A in 1986 and continued to be involved in Cursillo events. Rest in God's eternal peace Daphne.

Edna Carter was a valuable member of the Gympie Parish. Edna passed into God's hands at the beginning of December. For those who may have known her personally, her Cursillo Candidate Weekend was Women's 33 in 1993, at the Mercy Centre Brisbane. To the friends and family of Edna, we offer our sincerest condolences.

In Loving Memory

ON the road to Goondiwindi.

Members of Servant Community and Secretariat spent a weekend 'out west' at Goondiwindi on October 22 to 24. This weekend saw Rev. Marilyn & Rod Cullen, Marg & Ian Carr, Irene & Bruce Moy, Ann & Peter (Martin) Victor, Jenni & Nick Crisp, Sally & Errol Turnbull plus Kay and Greg Self head into the beautiful country border town to meet up with Cursillistas from Goondiwindi parish. A meal at the Victoria Hotel on the Saturday evening was a superb social outing as the group was joined by Gail, Jo, Alicia and Rozzie.

Goondiwindi parish is currently without a priest, and this allowed our group to minister with our own Diocesan Servant Community Spiritual Advisor Rev. Marilyn, leading the Sunday Service. Other members of the group assisted. Following the service, the parish extended hospitality with a bountiful country morning tea.

Thank you to both Kay (Post Cursillo Coordinator) for organising the visit and Alicia, the Cursillo parish contact for a warm welcome. Kay Self and Marg Carr are both keen to hear from other parishes which might like a visit from Diocesan Servant Community and Secretariat in 2022.

MEN'S 80 CURSILLO

"Come as You Are"

To say the Weekend was a success is an understatement. A Cursillo at any time is a happy, joyous event. My aim for Men's 80 was to continue the tradition. Our theme for the Cursillo was "Come as You Are".

The team arrived on the Thursday morning to set up the venue and we achieved this with some time to spare and had things well in hand by the time the Candidates began to arrive.

Men's 80 Cursillo started on the evening of Thursday 28th at Glendalough with our dinner and introductions with Diocesan L.D. Alan Gray and his wife Sharyn in attendance. After dinner our evening program began. We started with a thought-provoking series of events for the Weekend that had great impact on the Candidates and Team members alike. Prayer is an important component of Cursillo as we retired in silence.

Friday morning began as usual in silence in the chapel for Morning Prayer and Meditations followed by breakfast. After breakfast, the Cursillo began as the Talks and Meditations began in earnest.

As the day progressed, there was a great deal of bewilderment and joy by the Candidates as they settled into their Table Communities and began building relationships with one another and the rest of the group. As the day progressed the Talks were all well received, and Candidates got into the posters albeit with some laughter.

In the evening we allocated some time, at the request of the Candidates, to ask questions of the Spiritual Advisers and the Lay Director. This was so beneficial to the Candidates and a highlight in the Weekend.

Saturday began as usual in the Chapel before breakfast. After breakfast the Talks began again to build on the first day's Talks and culminated in a poster display that evening followed by another short session on questions to the Spiritual Advisors. Each evening concluded with Compline.

On Sunday, our final day of the Cursillo, the program for the day had a profound effect on the Candidates and Team as well. We had our final talks and gave the Candidates a sample of a Group Reunion. The Emmaus Walk did bring the Weekend together for the Candidates and was a refresher for the Team.

Naturally, being a Cursillo, there was a lot of singing, humour, laughter, and good old-fashioned fun. My aim as the L.D. was to have a happy, joyful Cursillo. We reached that goal because God provided me with a Team of men who were committed to their roles and carried them out well. I give God thanks for the Team and the way in which they honoured Him through their actions. I found amazing spiritual growth in the Candidates as the weekend progressed.

ULTREYA,
Max McClelland

WOMEN'S 80 CURSILLO

“I sought the Lord, and He answered me”

The Cursillo weekends finally happened. The Lord had it all organised.

The Women's 80 weekend was a beautiful, spiritual, and uplifting time for both candidates and Team. We had a wonderful team who worked together and made it such a great weekend. It was so good to see the candidates who came in unsure of what was to happen and then to see them blossom as the weekend unfolded.

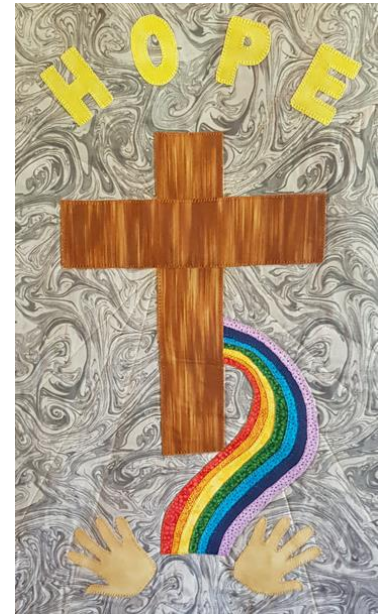

At the Thursday night dinner Alan Gray spoke and so the weekend began. We had an introductory session and a time of sharing, which lead into the time of silence. This seemed to be beneficial to the new ladies. As Friday unfolded and some talks were presented the artistic talents of some became very evident during the poster time. Much discussion took place around the tables and the Spiritual Advisors moved around and answered questions that were raised.

The weekend progressed well, with much bonding and sharing taking place. On Saturday night, after the Healing service, much fun and laughter was shared. The Emmaus walk went well with some walking and others sitting, because walking was a bit difficult.

It was so special to hear the testimonies given by all the women when they spoke at the end of the weekend. Our theme “I sought the Lord, and He answered me” was very evident and I do give thanks for the way it was answered. I hope and pray that the candidates are travelling well into their fourth day.

Prayers and best wishes for the next Women's Lay Director, Kay Self.

Merilyn Greensill

WHAT DO CANDIDATES NEED TO KNOW?

We have recently been members of the M80 and W80 Cursillo team. On the Sunday evenings, we heard a number of the candidates say that they had no idea what the Cursillo weekend was about. They had just trusted their sponsors. This is great but to help their uncertainty about attending a weekend, sponsors might like to consider giving potential candidates more information about the weekend. Here is a suggestion.

The Cursillo weekend is a short course on Christian living. The weekend involves a full three and a half days from Thursday evening to Sunday evening. Each day starts early and finishes with a late evening. A series of prepared talks and meditations are delivered by the team. Following each talk, there is a discussion within your allocated table group. The weekend includes daily worship services – Morning Prayer, Eucharist and Compline. There will be time for quiet reflection and personal prayer. On Friday and Saturday there are short breaks for a rest in the afternoon.

There are breaks for breakfast, morning tea, lunch, afternoon tea, dinner and supper. Special dietary requirements are met. You are not left hungry.

The Cursillo weekend is just the start of a person's journey with Christ.

Also suggest to the candidates that they may wish to set aside the Monday following the weekend for recovery, rest and reflection on their weekend.

John and Jan Corcut

GROUPING – “I am a Footballer”

If I say to you “I am a footballer” those who know me would roll around on the floor, and for those who don’t, I need to explain that I am a 75-year-old overweight woman!

“You’re a footballer?” you say in amazement. Yep: I know the various codes - soccer, rugby, league, AFL to name a few. I know some of the rules – no high tackles, no forward passes, no touching the ball with your hands etc. I know the names of some of the teams in most of the codes. I’ve even taken part in footy tipping competitions. Surely that makes me a footballer!

The truth is I must play football if I am to be a footballer.

Most of us remember the euphoria we felt at the end of our Cursillo weekend. That amazing feeling of being embraced in the love of our God and our Christian family. We all want that to continue for as long as possible. Well, like the football analogy, so too is the Cursillo walk. We have to play, or in this case, group.

The practice of grouping regularly is imperative to your ongoing spiritual growth.

From your group you establish a bonding only found when you share the ups and downs of your life: when you open your heart and admit to struggles – and triumphs! You become a team with your fellow pilgrims, loyal to each other, providing strength in the tough times and celebrating the joys of the good. You are Christian and in intimate relationship with Christ.

I urge everyone who has done the Cursillo walk to look around, find or form a group and start meeting regularly – weekly, fortnightly or monthly, whatever your schedule allows. And put it in your planner, so it has priority and doesn’t just happen if nothing else that seems more interesting comes along. Just as footballers are fined for not attending practice, so too you will slip away if you don’t group.

And the other way to keep your joy going is to attend Cursillo events. They’re like awards nights where everyone is swept up in celebration of this amazing journey we’re on – to the grand final, or in this case, a life in Christ and eternal life thereafter.

Ann Morris

Group Reunion Online??

Have you found a Group Reunion to belong to yet?

These days a lot of us are time poor and find it difficult to set aside the time to meet in person. One option may be to meet online for a Group Reunion.

How will that work? Here's a suggestion.

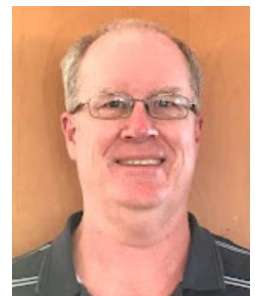

There is lots of Video Conferencing software that could be used for this. ZOOM is just one.

To conduct a group reunion on ZOOM;
Requisites are:-

1. Each person needs an Internet connected device with camera and microphone. (Computer, Laptop, Tablet or Smart Phone)
2. One member would need to have a ZOOM Account. (Free to Sign up but meetings with more than 2 people would cut out after 40 minutes.)
3. That member could either create a meeting request link or use their Personal Meeting ID Link.
4. Then send/email that link to Group participants.
5. When participants click on the link, if they don't already have ZOOM App installed, it will ask them to download it, then install it.
6. Arrange a time when everyone joins using that link.
7. Grouping shouldn't go for more than 40 minutes but if you want, you can just re-join using the same link.
8. Let your Cursillo Parish Contact know you are grouping online.

If you are not part of a group, why not start an ONLINE Group Reunion today.

Peter Victor

- ✈ Sally Turnbull and team working on plans for Pilgrimage in 2022.

In Christian Fellowship

Lurline Campbell and Don, her husband, made their Cursillo in 1993 (Men's and Women's 33) when Don was the Rector of Surfers Paradise. Lurline and Rev. Don met Amer Qusus in 2009 while looking after the International Anglican Church in Amman, Jordan as short-term workers with the Church Missionary Society between 2009 and 2013. Amer is a remarkable Christian worker in the Church of the Nazarene. In 2008, before the Syrian war, he and Margaret Holt, an Australian CMS missionary, met Iraqi Christian women refugees in Damascus. With financial help from Christians in Australia, these women were introduced into courses which have given them sources of income. Lurline and Don have kept up the friendship and sharing in a ministry in which Amer continues to be involved. Lurline received these, "Points of Encouragement" from Amer recently and has sent them on to us for reflection.

The Third Solution from Amer Qusus; a Jordanian Christian friend.

When Lazarus fell ill, Martha and Mary only think of two things. That Christ come and heal; or Lazarus will die and rise in eternity.
But Christ came with the third solution, bringing their brother back after four days of death.

When the prodigal son returns and has lost the inheritance, he expects two things; either he is dismissed as a son or is accepted as a worker until the debt is paid.
But there was a third solution. Restore the son to his position. Put on new clothes and restore his dignity.

When Jesus' friends asked him who had sinned to cause a man to be born blind, they had two answers: the man or his parents.
But Jesus said, "Not this man and not his father or his mother. But so that the works of God may appear in it."

When it was late, and everyone was hungry at the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus' friends put before Him, two options. Either buy food or let everyone go and find food.
But Jesus had another idea. He fed everyone with five loaves of bread and two fish.

The point is, however confused your mind; there is a third solution with God.
Don't limit yourself to two options. We forget that God has a third solution that is not subject to human logic or the laws of nature.

Rest assured God has the third solution.

Amer Qusus

Greetings from Post Cursillo

Diocesan Ultreya - Curiosity & Transformation was a wonderful day of worship and fellowship to enrich our 4th Day. Our witness speaker, now ordained Loretta Tyler-Moss, told us that we are never alone when we transform our lives by inviting God in. It was great to have Bishop Cam with us too, as he reminded us that Jesus seeks out and welcomes all, even a tax collector like Zacchaeus. (Luke 19:1-10)

Special thanks to St Bart's Mt Gravatt for all their support, to Rev. Michael and Parish Contact Judith and the musicians Linda, Graham, Vashi and Steve.

Blessings and Prayers for Christmas

May I wish all Cursillistas in the Diocese of Southern Queensland a holy, happy and safe Christmas and Cursillo filled 2022. A special Thank you to all the Parish Contacts for the enthusiasm you spread about Cursillo in your parishes, and I look forward to hearing from you in 2022 for a chat, visit or information about an Ultreya.
